KIRKWOOD PLAZA, a commercial development of Ira Kirkorian at San Tomas Aquino Road and Campbell Ave., will be one of the most attractive shopping areas in Campbell when it is completed.

One of the most outstanding features of the center is the "roundhouse" which will house a delicatessen and liquor store.

Pete Lico, long-time market operator and former councilman and mayor, will be the operating manager of this unique establishment in association with Kirkorian.

Apparently no expense has been spared to make this novel octagon-shaped structure one of the finest in the area. There are still some wrinkles yet to be removed before the place is operating like Pete and Ira want, but it opened for business this week.

It's worth a run down there just to look over the building or to chat with the proud operators and to wish them success in their new venture.

CAMPBELL'S MARINA PARK is a long way from its ultimate.

The city has acquired title for the seven-acre parcel near Los Gatos Creek and adjacent to the percolation ponds operated by the Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation District.

But all the park area is right now is another pond - period.

Plans call for the pond to be filled and landscaped eventually, it is hoped, it will become a part of the overall creek park complex stretching from Los Gatos to Campbell.

It is going to take a lot of dirt to fill that pond.

But LeRoy Black, parks superintendent, reported at the last council meeting that one outfit was already to start dumping, if the council agreed.

One councilman asked City Manager Bob Stephens the question that was bothering us also.

What happens to the water when the dirt goes in and was it necessary to drain the water first?

Bob reassured us that was no problem.

Apparently the dirt absorbs the water or it sloshes out or something.

We should have remembered that from the displacement theory of physics or from actually observing the various filling operations on the bay.

But there is one question that still bothers us.

What happens to the fish that are in the water now?

We suppose there is an obvious answer to that also.

But we note from the minutes of the last

Hospital gets ok for site

A 25-bed convalescent hospital to be located at 238 Virginia Ave. was granted a use permit by the Planning Commission Monday night and the planners also gave the green light to an addition to a church at 163 Sunnyside by the granting of a variance for a front yard requirement.

But a zone change request submitted by Charles Prestigiacomo for property located at 510 Eden Ave. and 215 W. Hamilton, across from Rosemary School, did not fare as well. The applicant had asked that the zoning be changed for the two lots from the present R-3-S (multiples) to either P-O (professional office) or C-1-S (commercial).

The commission unanimously denied the request on the basis that the zone change was not compatible with the present zoning in the area. A single-family residence exists on one of the lots at present and Prestigiacomo maintained that it worked a hardship on him not to allow something more lucrative from an income point of view to go on the parcel. The commissioners indicated that the present R-3-S zone would allow an apartment building and any other zone would constitute spot zoning.

The application for a use permit for the convalescent hospital was submitted by Arlie

NEW OFFICE BUILDING - Construction has started on the new $65,000 office building of the Campbell Water Co., to be located at 555 W. Campbell Ave. The water firm will move from its office at 346 E. Campbell which has been occupied by the company since 1938. The office is just part of the $500,000 expansion program that the utility has planned to keep pace with the explosive growth of the area.

Campbell Water Co. lets contract for new office

Construction started this week on the new office building for the Campbell Water Co., at 555 W. Campbell Ave., according to Homer Hyde, general manager.

Hyde said that the contract for the building has been let to Frazier Construction Co., of 2100 S. Bascom, Campbell, low bidder for the job. The successful bid was $64,990.

Hyde reported that there were five other bids ranging to a high of $74,840.

The new office building will be located just east of the present channel of San Tomas Creek on a four-acre parcel owned by the company and on which production facilities of the company are now located.

The office building which was designed by William W. Hedley, Jr., a San Jose architect, will consist of 2200 square feet and will have a stone and rustic design to coincide with the residential character of the area.

The building is scheduled to be completed by fall and at that time quarters owned and occupied by the water company at 346 E. Campbell since 1938 will be vacated.

The construction of the new office building is just one phase of the expansion program of the Campbell Water Co., which will total approximately $500,000 for a three-year period.

When the present office was built in 1938, the company was serving 700 customers. Today the utility serves in excess of 4000 and additional office space has become imperative. The company is now supplying 615 million gallons of water each year to its customers.

The firm employs nine people in its operation including Hyde as general manager; Frank Kukuk, engineer and Bob James as office manager. All the key personnel of the company have taken an active part in community affairs. Hyde has been a long-time member of the city's planning commission and Kukuk is a member of the Parks and Recreation Commission.

The company was founded by the late Ralph Hyde in 1917 and Mrs. Ralph Hyde is president of it today.

"The $500,000 expansion program of our company," Hyde commented, "of which this long-needed office building is a part is just part of the program in the Campbell Water Company's efforts to keep pace with the explosive growth of the area. Our goal continues to be that of offering our customers the best service possible."

LOCAL STUDENT TO LIVE IN GERMANY - Miss Diane Rawlinson, 17, a Campbell High School senior, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Rawlinson of 2289 Montezuma Drive, has been selected by the American Field Service committee to spend the summer in Germany. (Story on page 4.)

Council may appoint commissioner Monday

Adoption of the preliminary budget for the City of Campbell and the possible appointment of a member of the Planning Commission will highlight the City Council meeting next Monday, June 28.

On Tuesday of this week a council committee interviewed 10 applicants for the commission vacancy under a new policy recently adopted by the council. This is the first time that such a method of selection has been used.

In addition to the eight applicants listed last week, two others this week have asked to be considered. Mrs. Robert R. (Jean) McDonald, of 730 Buddlawn Way, the only woman on the list, submitted her application as did James Baker, an attorney with offices at 415 E. Campbell Ave.

The eight other applicants include, Verl Weitzel; David L. Finch; Sidney A. Smith, Sr.; Tom Perry; Leonard Pritchard; Courtland Watson; William T. Ellis and Mario Tencati.

By Monday night, the council plans to have removed most of the budgetary bugs from the original draft of the $2 million document and will be ready to adopt the preliminary job on Monday. Council members have held a series of long drawn out budget sessions this month in which they attacked the fiscal problems facing the city.

Another important session is scheduled for this Thursday afternoon when many of the department alloca-

Job campaign hits snag; help wanted

By Grace Hebard

The campaign by the Campbell Press to obtain summer jobs for boys and girls between the ages of 14 and 18 has resulted in a deluge of youngsters at the Press eager for work and a pitiful lack of response from West Valley business and professional people.

The support of the four Campbell service clubs, Rotary, Optimist, Lions and Kiwanis, has been solicited, and it is hoped that we will have several job placements to report next week. Our thanks go to Mrs. Roy Archibald, 751 Briarwood Way, who has employed a youth to do some interior painting. Rev. Alfred E. Carson of St. Lawrence Episcopal Church, reported two openings as Camp Counselors, which are expected to be filled this week.

The Press will act as a clearing house for employers on MONDAY AND FRIDAYS ONLY. Persons with job openings are invited to call the Press, 378-9136 on those two days only.

The support of conscientious adults is urged in this drive for summer employment. If there are no jobs, "then create a job" to help our youngsters to success.

Thieves hit Alice Avenue

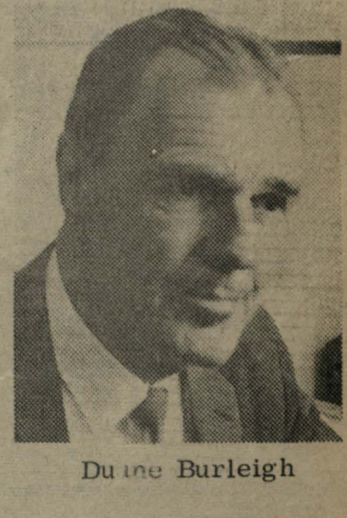
Campbell had a seige of burglaries over the week-end in the vicinity of Alice Avenue. Residents discovered their unlocked garages had been entered and cars and freezers were ransacked. Police are investigating and fingerprints were taken.

Mrs. Nadine Babb, 133 Alice Ave. had clothing taken from her garage. Joseph Agostinho, 48 Alice, had food stolen from his freezer in the garage. Fire Chief George Maxwell lost $40 worth of meat, including deer steaks from his freezer, and several articles from the glove compartment of his Porsche. William J. Burns, 186 Alice, also found that his garage had been entered and his car ransacked. Ralph Proor, 190 So. First St., had a drill taken from his unlocked garage.

Campbell Press makes changes in staff jobs

A number of key staff changes were announced this week by The Campbell Press.

Frances R. Clever



Duane Burleigh

Duane Burleigh, formerly of Antioch, Calif., with a background of newspaper advertising experience as well as having served as a Chamber of Commerce manager of several California cities, has been appointed advertising manager for the paper.

Burleigh takes the place of Joe Anello, who was associated with The Press for 18 years and who is establishing a newspaper in Cloverdale, Calif. The first issue of the Cloverdale Sentinel, of which Anello is the founder and publisher, is scheduled to make its appearance this week.

Mrs. Frances R. Clever has become the office manager of The Press succeeding Mrs. Anita Jacobus who served in that capacity for the past three years. Mrs. Clever has previously been employed by The Press as woman's editor and has served also as vacation relief as editor. Lyle Ray will assist her two days a week in the bookkeeping chores.

Mrs. Clever for the past two years has been in charge of the Old Settlers Gazette produced by the Chamber of Commerce at Old Settlers' time.

Brent Ulrich, who has been employed by The Press in the production department of the paper for the past seven years has been promoted to production manager. Cliff Harrington, a recent graduate of Del Mar High School, is a recent addition to the "back shop" crew.

Rick Vierhus, another college student, will also assist in the "back shop" during the summer months.

Editorial

A historical event

An historical event took place at the City Council recently with very little fanfare. We refer to the approval of the boundary agreement between San Jose and Campbell. Both councils have now signed the agreement after a joint committee composed of councilmen and staff personnel had ironed out the rough spots.

Basically the agreement specifies boundary lines that neither city will violate. Within these lines there still remains considerable unincorporated area which could be annexed to the cities.

The agreement also outlines five areas which can go either way.

This historical agreement has been a long time in coming.. It should have been in existence 13 years ago when Campbell was first incorporated. The many annexation headaches that have developed over the years then would not have occurred.

Both cities have waged an aggressive annexation war during the past 10 years or so. In many instances territory that should have been annexed to Campbell went into San Jose. In other cases Campbell annexed parcels that would have been better off in San Jose.

Through the years The Press has condemned the belligerent annexation tactics of San Jose. We maintained that in case after case there was no basis for the annexations except just to gain the extra territory.

We felt sincerely that in many instances these annexations would work a hardship on the people who were eventually to live there.

There was no question that Campbell, as well as the other cities in the county, were forced into the annexation-grab-game by San Jose. In some instances the very existence of the smaller cities was threatened.

Although, as we said, we repeatedly condemned the roughshod methods used by San Jose in this 20th century land grab, our words had no effect. This artificial growth went on and on.

Particularly galling to us was the infamous "Cherry Lane Annexation" of San Jose which caught Campbell off guard and which cut a wide swath into Campbell proper.

Had the agreement that now has been signed been in effect at that time the Cherry Lane annexation would not have been allowed. For all intents and purposes that area still is "Campbell", although it is within the city limits of San Jose.

Even without the boundary agreement, but under the sanction of the Agency Commission, we feel quite certain that the Cherry Lane annexation would not have been allowed. But at the time of that annexation there was no such agency to control the maneuvers of the municipalities.

But that is over and done with. Despite valiant legal efforts on the part of Campbell, the annexation stood up.

We concede that perhaps we have nothing to gain by bringing up past history in face of the sweetness and light that went with the signing of the boundary agreement.

Yet as we look at the peculiar formation of our city, with the lines going in and out, we cannot help wondering how much better it would have been to have had the boundary lines "squared off".

Thus, while we commend both city councils for their efforts in resolving a 13-year issue we only wish it could have been done years ago.

Say, about 13.

Our Parks and Recreation Commission has recommended that there be no fishing for the first year.

But we are concerned about what happens to our little finny friends, when that dirt is piled on top of 'em?

We suppose they scoot over the dike and head for the next pond.

CAMPBELL'S LIBRARY at Central and Campbell Avenues is fast becoming cramped. We learned at a recent council meeting when George F. Farrier, county librarian, brought the council up to date on local library activities.

Councilmen showed considerable interest in the point brought out by Farrier that his office is giving considerable thought to a new location that will serve the area more adequately. The librarian said that during the peak period of use the library right now is badly overcrowded.

It was mentioned also as sort of food for thought, that the City of Los Altos recently built a $200,000 library which is leased and operated by the county.

Councilmen have made no secret of the fact that one of the dreams of the future is to develop a civic center complex in the general area of where the city hall and fire station on Central are now located.

In fact, several pieces of property adjacent to the city buildings have been acquired and appraisals have been made on others.

A library building would obviously and naturally fit into any civic center development that is planned for the area.

A development of a civic center complex between Central and First and Campbell and Grant would take a lot of doing as well as dreaming. And money.

But we see nothing wrong in working toward such a goal.

Such a development would naturally be tied in with any program that could come out of the valiant efforts of the Downtown Redevelopment Committee, headed by John Faber, to "do something" about improving the downtown Campbell area.

Committee members have felt, and the City Council has agreed, that the first step in any redevelopment program would be an off-street parking program. The city has cooperated to the extent of obtaining appraisals for all properties involved in an off-street parking set-up and an engineering firm has completed estimates for such a development.

The downtown committee is scheduled to meet on June 30 to hear reports on this phase.

We well recognize that right now things are sort of in a dreamy state. But we have long maintained that dreams are important.

It's the translating of the dreams into practicalities that becomes the stickler.

But you have to start some place.

And a dream is about as good as any place we know of from which to start.

tions will be considered. Also on Thursday's agenda will be the Chamber of Commerce subsidy for the year. This session is set for 2 p.m. in the council chambers.

Other budget sessions may be necessary before the budget is ready for approval. The final budget will not be adopted until August 23 and between now and then a number of modifications could be made in the set-up.

City Manager Bob Stephens indicated this week that it might be possible on Monday also to make the appointment of an accounting-budget officer. Interviews have been completed for applicants for the position which pays $747-$906. Interviews are also scheduled this Friday for the position of superintendent of public works. The pay for this job ranges from $677 to $846.

At Monday's meeting, the council is also expected to award the contract for the first phase of buildings for the corporation yard. Engineer's estimate for the project is $13,500.

R. and Neva M. Helms. The property lies between the Church of God of Prophecy and the Jehovah's Witnesses church. The San Tomas Expressway is on the east and property on the west (across Virginia Ave.) is residential.

Planning Director Dick Hogan recommended approval because the operation was comparable with the surrounding development.

Helms explained that the location was desirable from the standpoint of its proximity to existing accredited hospitals, Campbell Community and Los Gatos Community plus quick access to other major hospitals.

The Rev. Irwin Weyhe, pastor of the Campbell Baptist Church, in asking for a variance on Sunnyside, explained that his church was planning to construct an educational unit adjacent to their present buildings and a setback of 23-feet would be needed instead of the required 25-feet in case of the future widening of the street the setback would be only 18 feet.

Approval was granted based on the conditions that building plans would have to be submitted and storm drain fees must be paid and a faithful performance bond for street improvement executed.

The planners also approved plans for two 12-unit apartment buildings to be located at 625 Nido and 172 Echo Ave. The plans were submitted by the Valley Ridge Development Co.

In other actions, the commission:

--RECOMMENDED the adoption by the City Council of an ordinance regulating coin-operated car wash operations.

--APPROVED the application of two neon window signs submitted by California Electric Co., at 1663 Bascom but denied the company's application for a pole sign at the same location.

--APPROVED a sign for Paul Scola at the King Building at 65 W. Hamilton of nine square feet. Scola had previously been turned down in his request for a sign of 20-square feet on the building.

--SCHEDULED for study sessions the matter of the service station control and new regulations for yard requirements of new houses.

Campbell Drugs leads in customer service

When the Campbell Drugs and Pharmacy opened in the Campbell Shopping Center 10 years ago in 1955 the store was rated as the most modern drug store in the Santa Clara Valley.

The display fixtures and the lighting effects that were installed at that time, and various departments that were established then had the sole objective of customer convenience.

Business has expanded at Campbell Drugs over the years. Many new developments have occurred in the realm of merchandising display.

To keep pace with the changes and to regain the lead in customer convenience Campbell Drugs has embarked on an ambitious remodeling and modernization program.

The objective is to make shopping easier for customers by making merchandise more visible by using the latest in display fixtures.

But something has to give... The modernization project will cut down on the merchandise warehousing space as it puts more merchandise on the display shelves.

So the store is staging a gigantic combination stock reduction and remodeling sale... from June 24 to June 27. Even the fixtures, that were rated as the most modern in existence 10 years ago are being offered for sale as the store undergoes its face-lifting.

Although the entire store will be affected by the changes that will be made, the most outstanding will be the installation of the new cosmetic department which will become the most "ultra" in the area.

Other departments that will be expanded and redesigned will be the candy unit and the party gift and card displays.

Bill Means and his staff invites the public to take advantage of the many savings that will be in effect during the remodeling sale and bear with them as the workmen work around them. They feel that the end result will be worth it.

COSMETIC FACE-LIFTING- Edith Bernhut (left) and Pauline Barker of the Campbell Drugs staff start stacking shelves in the cosmetic department of the store for the remodeling sale. The department will be modernized and the warehouse space will be reduced to make room for new type display cases. When completed, the display area will be twice the present size with carpeted floor and special ceiling. One feature of the new wall cases will be that they will be mirrored with special glass shelves.

NEW DISPLAY AREA--(above) When the remodeling program of Campbell Drugs is completed, the party gift and card department (pictured as it now is above) will be doubled in size. New type of card display racks will be installed and party goods will also be more visibly displayed.

CANDY AREA--(right) The modern candy display cases of the Campbell Drugs will be shifted to a new location in the store when the remodeling program at the store is completed. This modern and attractive Whitman Candy fixture will fit into the new motif of the store which will emphasize more visible display area.

Gene Kelley, manager of the Campbell office of The First National Bank of San Jose, will be among 64 bankers to receive honor awards at the 43rd annual banquet and prize presentation of the American Institute of Banking's Santa Clara County chapter in San Jose June 24.

LAVENDER FLU
Your grandfather probably knew this cure. Flowers of lavender quilted in a hat were supposed to ward off "stuffed-up" noses and head colds. Pleasant treatment—but certainly not a sure cure. Today, thanks to medical science, we have numerous effective vaccines . . . against flu, whooping cough and other respiratory diseases . . . to immunize and protect us from the discomforts of infections. So, why suffer needlessly. Ask your physician about them. Let him prescribe the medication that is most effective for your needs. Then come to us for prescription service.

Blexrude wins ringer tourney

Bill Blexrude, veteran Oakland pitcher, successfully defended last year's Los Gatos Open Horseshoe triumph by defeating Jesse Gonzales of the Los Gatos Club in a playoff Sunday, June 13 at Oak Meadow Park.

Gonzales and Blexrude had ended the two-day 16-man round-robin affair with identical 12-3 records, but Bill was not to be denied and put the pressure on early to win the playoff with a 74 percent game.

The tournament was hotly contested in excellent weather and anyone of six pitchers could have won up to the last three rounds of play.

John Lochner, Los Gatos Lion's Club President, presented trophies to Blexrude and Gonzales. Over $200 in each and trophies were awarded to the 16 contestants.

AFS selects Diane Rawlinson to spend summer in Germany

Campbell High School will be represented by an attractive seventeen-year-old miss named Diane Rawlinson in Beuel, Germany, this summer. The soft-spoken, poised young lady was selected by the American Field Service to live with a German family in Beuel, which is on the Rhine River, just a few miles from Bonn.

She will be the guest of the Merzhauser family, in which there is a son, 24, and a daughter, 16. While there she will "become a part of the family," doing chores, learning customs, speaking their language, and generally furthering understanding between our two countries.

Diane leaves June 25. The trip is expected to take about 11 days. She will fly to New York from San Francisco, and then board the ship "The Seven Seas" to Rotterdam. From there she will take a train to Beuel.

How does a student qualify for American Field Service? First of all, he must be considered a "good representative" of our country. In addition to having good grades, the student must be poised and able to handle difficult situations which may arise, tactfully. He or she should be active in several "extra-curricular" organizations and possess a "well-rounded" personality. A familiarity with the language of the country is a necessity.

Diane is interested in science and has been a lab assistant at Campbell High. She also majored in languages, including Latin, French add German. She has been her class representative to the Student Council, a member of a political discussion group, and several other clubs including Girls Sports and Modern Dancing.

While she is in Germany, Diane has promised to send us letters and pictures of her experiences.

Frank Cutting's paintings on exhibit in Los Gatos

Of particular interest to the local friends and admirers of the late Campbell artist, Francis H. "Frank" Cutting (1872-1964) will be the news that The Vault, 68 West Main Street, Los Gatos, will present a showing of his paintings of central California.

Mr. Cutting lived in California for 71 years and for that many years he painted California. A graduate of San Jose Normal, he also studied painting at the College of the Pacific and with numerous artists including William Adam, Charles Harmon, and Arthur Hill Gilbert. He received early recognition for his work and exhibitions of his paintings commenced in the early 1920's. It was at this time that he decided to devote himself full time to painting. For the rest of his live, primarily in the medium of oil, he strove to depict the varying moods of nature.

Critics have said that perhaps his greatest appeal as an artist was his ability to grasp and interpret the moods of nature: the serenity and timelessness of the redwoods; the restlessness of the ocean in its varying intensity from calm to storm; the valley orchard in full bloom; the trees and vineyards in autumn; the twisted cypress; the dunes; the wildflowers; the mountains; the mission weathered by the years; the endless gamut of the beauty of California.

The Vault will present a selected group of paintings primarily marines and landscapes of central California which were painted at various periods in the artist's long career. They are of interest historically not only because they show the variety in technique and mood of the artist over the years but also because many of the canvases depict scenes of a California that was but is no more.

The Vault will hold Open House from 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, June 27th. The gallery will be open daily, except Monday and Tuesday, from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. June 26 through July 18.

Bond defeat costs money

There is every indication that failure of the $16 million West Valley College bond issue in 1964 might have cost the college district more money than all of last year's income from property taxes, according to Trustee Jack Armstrong.

Armstrong had reference to a $3.7 million grant for California junior colleges made possible through the federal Higher Education Facilities Act. The entire sum went to the soon-to-be-built DeAnza College in Cupertino.

President Wallace W. Hall had speculated earlier that the 1964 bond issue would have made possible preparation of preliminary plans by West Valley, which in turn would have given West Valley a higher priority for the sum than DeAnza.

"By defeat of the bonds," Armstrong said, "our taxpayers lost the chance of securing the $3.7 million sum--more than a full year of property tax income. To me that's a sad thing.

Campbell district continues to attract good teachers

Neal Royer, who becomes superintendent of Campbell Union School District July 1, has almost completed the most successful recruiting-selecting campaign in his nine years as assistant superintendent.

With one position left to fill - an eighth grade teacher - and 64 new staff members hired, Royer and his personnel assistant Mrs. Mary DeLong are still deluged with a flood of applicants. Approximately 1,500 persons applied for the 65 positions - an average of 23 prospects for every job.

Campbell Union School District administrators have been very proud in the past when they attracted 10 applicants for each opening. Then in February a new count startled everybody by showing 15 applicants per job.

Total staff this past year has been 438. District officials say that several factors create the climate for success in Campbell District recruiting efforts. The reputation of the district's educational program, its history of good supervision and friendly welcome for student teachers; and care in hiring a specific person for one specific job in a particular grade and school.

According to Royer, the principal consultants and permanent teachers do much to create an atmosphere of welcome and encouragement for both student teachers and newly hired teachers facing their first experience as professionals in the classrooms. A strong in-service training program gives new and student teachers a sense of security and confidence that they can do a successful job.

ADVANCED COURSE

Army Pvt. Robert L. Lloyd, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence G. Lloyd, 1442 Cronwell Drive, Campbell, recently completed eight weeks of advanced infantry training under the Reserve Enlistment Program at Fort Polk.

SOCIAL SECURITY
Questions and Answers

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

Q. How much do I have to pay a domestic worker before I am required to file a social security tax return and when is the return due?

A. If you pay a domestic worker $50 or more in a calendar quarter, you are required to file a social security tax return. There are 13 weeks in each calendar quarter, and a payment of $4 or more per week would exceed the $50 requirement. The calendar quarters are: January through March; April through June; July through September; and October through December. Social security tax returns are due in the month following the end of each calendar quarter. The tax return for the present calendar quarter is due in July.

Q. I retired from my job last year and filed an application for social security payments. I took a part-time job commencing in January, and was very careful to schedule my hours so that I would not earn more than $1200 this year. I want to continue work until the end of the year, but a situation has arisen which has me worried. I may have to cash some Government Bonds which I purchased a number of years ago. Considerable interest has accrued on the bonds. Will this interest have to be counted as earnings for the year? A friend tells me he doesn't think interest payments are considered as earnings under the Social Security Law. I hope he is right.

A. Your friend is correct. Only earnings from work must be reported. If you wish further information concerning your income while you are receiving social security payments, get in touch with the Social Security Office and ask for Booklet No. 23.

Q. I will be 72 in August of this year. I am working part time now, but since I understand I can earn as much as I wish after I reach age 72, I will return to full-time employment in August and now earn over $1200. Do I have to notify the Social Security Administration of my increase in earnings?

A. Yes. Although you may earn as much as you wish, beginning in August, your total earnings for the year could affect the number of checks you can receive in the months prior to August. Starting next year, when you are 72 or over in all months of the year, you can earn as much as you want and you do not have to notify us.

Trustees promote Art Ring to consultant in district

Art Ring, a master teacher in the Campbell elementary school system, has been promoted to general consultant in the district by action of the board of trustees.

Neal Royer, assistant superintendent, explained that the promotion was a reward for work well done and a recognition that the district science program will be expanded to a year-long rather than a single semester program in seventh and eighth grades. The district already teaches science all year long in kindergarten through the sixth grade.

ART RING
Promoted

Royer added that the district was not adding another master teacher to take Ring's place and there will be no increase in personnel as a result of his promotion to general consultant. Ring will be available for work in other subjects but his speciality has been furthering the district science program.

Ring came to Campbell Union School District September 1, 1957. He taught fifth grade two years, sixth grade four years, and was assigned as a master teacher September, 1963.

Before coming to Campbell, he taught at Ukiah Union School District 1956-57, and at Jamesville DeWitt Jr. Sr. High School 1955-56.

Ring holds a bachelor of science degree (1955) and a master of science degree (1956) from Syracuse University.

Ring has been responsible for sparkplugging the annual district-wide science fair which he originated with others at Cherry Lane School, where it was sponsored by the Cherry Lane Home and School Club.

He served as an aviation radioman in the United States Naval Reserve, with active duty in World War II from August, 1943 to May, 1946, and in the Korean War from September 1950 to May, 1952.

He and his wife, Jo, have two children, aged seven and nine. They have lived in Campbell at 207 N. Victor Ave. for the past eight years. Joanne, age 9, attends fourth grade at Coventry School. Edward, age 7, is a second grader there.

Upper division students still can enroll

Applications for admission to the upper and graduate divisions are still being accepted by San Jose State College, Roy J. Delpier, admissions officer, announces. Admission to the lower division (freshmen and sophomores) has already closed for the 1965 fall semester.

Students who wish to apply for admission as juniors, seniors or graduate students may obtain application blanks by writing to Admissions Office, San Jose State College, 125 S. 7th St., San Jose, Calif. or calling 408-294-6414. Admission will be on a first-come, first-served basis until the enrollment limitation is reached.

Congregational church sends youth to France

MICHAEL JONES

On July 3, Michael Lewis Jones, sixteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland L. Jones, Jr., 12511 Jolene Court, Saratoga, will take off for New York City on the first lap of a year's living abroad as a part of the International Christian Youth Exchange under the sponsorship of the Congregational Church of Campbell, 400 West Campbell Ave. At the same time Brigitte Cadier of 12 Place D'Armes, Toulon, France, also 16, will be leaving her home to come and live with the Jones family for a year.

This is the first time that the Congregational Church of Campbell has had the opportunity to participate in the Christian Youth Exchange program, and hopes to make this a part of the on-going program of the Church Scholarship.

On June 27 at the 11 o'clock service of the local church, Jones will be commissioned as an exchange student by the Rev.'s Ed Cunningham and V.F. Deditius, after which service a brief reception will be held in the church mall.

While overseas Jones will be living in the home of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cadier in Toulon, France, a French naval shipyard in South France. Rev. Cadier is a pastor in the town of 190,000 population. There Mike will be attending high school at Lycee, a school with 3,200 students. Two of the children in the family speak English.

Mike attends Westmont High School where he would have been a junior this year. He is a member of the Campbell De Molay, active in music, plays piano and organ and has been active in the youth program of the church.

Coming to Campbell from Toulon will be Brigitte, who is interested in science. She comes from a large family with five brothers and sisters. While here she will live with the Jones family and go to Westmont as an exchange student.

District No. 4 increases rates

On July 8 new rates for sanitary sewer connections with Sanitation District No. 4 will become effective as a result of an ordinance adopted this month by directors of the district.

The rate increase was recommended by a citizens committee composed of 14 citizens representing six cities and the county area within the district. The committee suggested a moderate increase in connection fees levied by the district to more equitable finance the $7,500,000 bond issue for construction and acquisition of essential sewerage facilities.

Excerpts from the ordinance specify that the new rates will include:

Permit for repair of sewers, $5; sewer connection permit fee, $7.50; frontage fee on sewer serving only one side of a street; $7.50 per ft., Zone 1 and $10 per ft., Zone 2; frontage fee all other cases, $3.65 per ft., Zone 1; $5 per ft., Zone 2.

Acreage connection fee (excluding frontage area) $55 per acre.

Unit connection fee; single family dwelling on 40,000 sq. foot or greater lot, $50 per year; single family dwelling between 10,000 and 20,000, $40; single family on less than 10,000, $35.

Multiple dwellings, $30; commercial, $25 minimum plus surchange for each 100 cubic feet per month, $2.50; commercial with dwelling units, $25 plus surcharge for each 100 cubic feet per month, $2.50.

Industrial premises, minimum for first 1000 cubic feet per month, $25; plus surcharge for each $100 cubic feet per month, $2.50.

Obituaries

Adah Butts

Final rites were held last week for Mrs. Adah Butts, 89, who died at her home at 1638 Willowhurst Ave. after a long illness.

Mrs. Butts was a native of San Jose and the daughter of Nathan Ross, an early settler in the Union district. She was the wife of Herbert A. Butts, retired mechanic. She was honored in this community as Campbell's oldest living Old Settler. She was a member of Orchard City Grange No. 33 and the Campbell and Willow Reading and Study Club. Arrangements were handled by Chapel of Rose, Interment was at Oak Hill Memorial Park.

O. C. Barrymore

O. C. Barrymore, 73, president of the California Shingle and Shake Comapny, with a branch office at 25 Railway Ave., Campbell, died June 18 in Concord, Calif.

Barrymore became ill about three weeks ago, underwent surgery, and died in a Concord Hospital.

The firm's Campbell branch was established eight years ago. A resident of California for 55 years, he was a graduate of the University of California and a veteran of World War I.

Barrymore claimed credit for the invention of one of the first mobile concrete mixer units ever built. He constructed the device in the 1920's.

He is survived by his wife, Ruth, of Concord: a daughter, Yvonne Barrymore: and a son, St. Clair Barrymore. Funeral services were held in Concord at the Lough-Ouimet Chapel.
